By Whitney D Smith

Outskirts Press, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 226 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Whitney will make you think, laugh and cry while she becomes transparent and honest in her writing in order for young people to learn from her mistakes, how to deal with pressure, how to cope with losing close friends while in school, and many other issues like, sex, drugs, alcohol, financial aid, credit card companies and Greek life, just to name a few! Her memoir also includes interviews from others who attended college who wanted to share their experiences through this vehicle. This is also a good read for college graduates who want to take a ride back to their college days and reminisce and laugh about those experiences! In order for young people to listen to you and know that you are genuine and sincere about their well-being is to keep it REAL HONEST with them and not sugar coat anything. They can see right through it! -Whitney D. Smith. Why didn't you write this book 20 years ago! We are almost the same age and I have to say - you're one wise...
