There is a smile that has baffled the painters fine arts, To produce it for years they have toiled, But that beautiful smile they have failed to impart In their picture of mother and child. Chorus. It is that smile that appears when the baby is born, It will forever remain undefiled. For the artist has never yet caught that sweet smile, In his picture of mother and child. It is that beautiful smile on the young mothers face, Fresh and fair as the flowers in the morn, It is a smile that is common to every race, When a sweet little baby is born. The artistic hand on the canvas may paint All the splendors of woodland and sky, But that beautiful smile on the young mothers face, All painters best efforts defy. She Was Only a Woman. She was only a woman who had loved and had los , It is only the woman who must pay the cost. In a small country village she lived her young life. Far away from the city s temptation and strife. Like other young maids she was happy and gay, When a false hearted young man, happened her way. He told her he loved her, she believed wha he said. For he promised to marry this sweet country maid. Refrain. Broken hearted and sad she is weeping, Grieving in sorrow alone. In her arms her young baby lies sleeping, She now has no friends and no home. When the baby was born she was looked on with scorn. Tho the man who betrayed her went free. She...
