That is until he saw the body of his sister Annie, brutally used by a monster in human form, then carelessly discarded. He d never seen such grief ravage the face of his friend and brother-in-law Ray Cruz, a good cop on the Newport Beach Police Department. When Weir learns that the only witness swore the killer made his escape in a Newport Beach squad car, his disbelief turns to confusion and outrage. Now the anguished Weir is on the killer s trail, looking for answers among his former colleagues, but he s going up against a solid wall of silent blue. And just out of sight, a fractured shadow of a man watches Jim s progress with twisted amusement as he waits for his time to come.
