Hachette Children's Group, United Kingdom, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 197 x 132 mm. Language: English. Brand New Book. It is the 18th century and 12-year-old Obah already has a big future ahead of him. He is destined to be a high chief in his village in Benin. In just one day, Obah's life changes forever when he and his beloved young sister, Banita, are wrenched away from the world they know and sold into slavery. But the greatest pain of all comes when Obah and his sister are separated. He vows never to give up searching for Banita. Obah's love and determination to escape keep him strong, but are they enough to keep him alive? Inspired by The Interesting Narrative of the Life of Olaudah Equiano, the first published account by an African slave taken to the New World. Part of a unique collection of fictional stories about young people caught up in real-life conflicts and disasters. Through their eyes we experience the day-to-day hardships and dangers of living through troubled times from throughout history.
