Biography of a registered nurse who circumvented the Nazi and communist regimes to help people in need. This is a story about a Polish nurse, Hanna Chrzanowska (1902 -1973). Hanna was a great Polish patriot. During the Second World War, her tireless work with the homeless and refugees in Krakow significantly avoided mass hunger and outright starvation in the over-crowded city. After the war, Hanna, established and coordinated Catholic Parish Nursing in communist Poland. She worked for most of her professional life as a qualified nursing instructor in the field of community nursing, in schools of nursing in Poland. She is a model for today's generation of nurses and healthcare workers. The publisher is William R. Parks.
