Right about It Publications, United States, 2013. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 218 x 147 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Green is the color of envy, a color of beauty, a color that describes Yasmin Sinclair. Yasmin is a stunning young woman, admired by many, especially for her hazel-green eyes. She is often described as pretty, even beautiful. However, the reflection she sees is far from beauty. To her, her eyes are her biggest flaw, providing her male admirers a temporary fascination that will soon fade away. For Yasmin, green is a color of pain. All her life Yasmin has only wanted to be loved. She has sought her parents acceptance only to be met with criticism. Her parents barely acknowledge her, or show any act of compassion or love. From forgetting her birthday to ignoring her accomplishments, it is made clear she will never be a priority. Their love is only for her younger sister. Tired of feeling unwanted, she gathers the little confidence she has and resolves to get it together . On her night of liberation, she sees Braxton Simms. Braxton, a man she s admired from afar, but was always too...
