Not illustrated. 1887 Excerpt: .diminishing, and they were forced to the conclusion that the standard of membership must be far below that of well-managed organizations. The applications were taken to New York, and efforts made to re-insure the members as a whole. But it was found that the membership of the People s.Mutual taken in without medical examination by our predecessors would not be received by.any organization tbat promised permanent security without medical re-examination. Efforts were then made to join with other associations and thereby gain a large membership. After thorough investigation it was found net practicable It was impossible to pay claims in full without making additional assessments, and they would in time become too heavy for the members to stand, and it is very unsatisfactory to the trustees and benenciarles to pro rate the death claims. The trustees therefore decided to secure an arrangement with an association whose plans and management promised positive, permanent security, and nave succeeded m making such an arrangement with The Citizens Mutual Life Insurance Association of New York, whereby that association accepts all the members that pass medical re-examlnni ion, without any cost to the members. Leaflets and endorsements of The Citizens Mutual will be found herewith; also blank applications and instructions about Medical Examiners. Of course the Trustees will continue to perform their duty, will receive payments into Mortuary Fund, and pay t hem out pro rata, impartially as long as any members remain to act for. By order of Board of...
