The odds against it were overwhelming. Could it really be true? His heart raced. Although she had been lost for over 50 years and Rex had tried to locate her for many of those years, the news caught him unprepared. His deceased wife's sister had somehow survived the war in Korea and subsequent starvation at the hands, first, of the brutal dictator Kim Il Sung, and then of his no-less-brutal son Kim Jung Il in North Korea. It had been Oakson's greatest wish to find her much-loved sister and, if possible, be reunited with her. With the memory of his wife forever at the front of his mind, he quickly resolved to help the sister escape to South Korea as she now wished. With his special knowledge of the Korean DMZ, he hoped to sneak into North Korea undetected and return with the sister-in-law he had never met. It would be an extremely dangerous undertaking though. The 4 km width of the DMZ was far from demilitarized with mine fields and frequent patrols from both the north and the south. On top of that he might encounter wild boars, Asiatic black bears, leopards or even Amur tigers if some reports were true. He hoped the reports of tigers were mistaken. If he managed to get lucky and cross the zone without incident, there were still approximately 750,000 North Korean soldiers spread out along its 155 mile length. They would not welcome him. In reality, if they saw him, he could expect to pay the highest possible price for his little jaunt. Rex had always been a closet...
