This book is about getting free from porn addiction - freedom to think whatever you want to think, travel wherever you want to travel, and be unbound by the restrictions of pornography. It gets to the root issues of porn addiction that go beyond sex, and reveals how to fix those issues. The author has been through the process himself, and everything in this book is brutally honest and uncomfortable, but changes the reader. This book is not just for porn addicts, but also for those who are family or friends of porn addicts. The ideas presented here are not only to guide addicts out, but to help heal them and former addicts and to prevent others from getting trapped in the first place. This book is for everyone.
