It was to secure-the liberation of this gentleman, his neighbor and friend, that Francis Scott Key obtained leave of the President to go to the British Admiral under a flag of truce. He was conveyed by the cartel boat used for the purpose of exchanging prisoners and accompanied by the flag officer. of the government. They proceeded down the bay from Baltimore and found the British fleet at the mouth of the Potomac. Mr. Key was courteously received by Admiral Cochrane; but he was not encouraged as to the success of the mission until letters from the English officers wounded at Bladensburg and left in the care of the Americans were delivered...
