Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from The Teaching of Languages in Schools (1888) The need for a reprint of this pamphlet, which first appeared in 1888, has been forcibly impressed on me. Quite recently I heard that it had been recommended by the Professor of Languages at the Royal Albert Memorial College at Exeter, and that the work had been advertised for in the newspapers. I also had a letter from a teacher of languages strongly urging me to have the valuable work reprinted. It is needless to say how willingly I undertook to do my best to keep alive that which had been the work of one whose life, though frequently overshadowed by sicknesses and disappointments, was one long, cheerful, strenuous endeavour - if I might be allowed so to express it - to put planks across the torrents of prejudice, injustice, and tradition, that others might pass over them to pastures new. That some have used his planks in the study of the teaching of languages is shown by the demand for a reprint of this pamphlet, his chief work on the subject. To us who knew him well this reprint is a token of gratitude that our prophecy, his work will continue, has been fulfilled, and we send this pioneering effort of his once more out into the world as a memorial of him whose life and work alike were always attuned to the highest ideals. May this book help those who are consciously engaged in teaching as much as he - an ever present comrade - still helps us in living!
