Fifth House Publishers. Hardback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, See This World Before the Next: Cruising with CPR Steamships in the Twenties and Thirties, David Laurence Jones, David Laurence Jones, See this World Before the Next pays homage to the romantic era of cruising to the worldas exotic destinations - in the first class style of the Canadian Pacific Railway. Though the Canadian Pacific Railway was a national enterprise in name, its founders were free-traders in practice and global thinkers by nature. Before the rails from east and west were joined in Eagleas Pass at Craigellachie, BC, on 7 November 1885, the company was operating ships on the Great Lakes, building a chain of tourist hotels, and already planning to launch end-of-track clear across the Pacific, laying the foundations for what would become the largest and most comprehensive transportation system in the world. What appeared to the public as separate companies popping up all over the map - Canadian Pacific Hotels, Canadian Pacific Steamships, Canadian Pacific Telegraphs, and so on - were, for operational purposes, mere departments of the worldwide administrative octopus known as the Canadian Pacific Railway: An Imperial Highway. The first cruise ships offered unheard of luxury and an opportunity to travel to major ports and distant corners of the world. Contained in the book are glimpses of foreign countries and amazing sights, vintage brochures and posters, detailed two-way correspondence, timetables, engineering plans and photographs, news clips, sailing schedules, passenger bulletins and promotional materials, and cruise-ship ephemera and travellersa diaries carefully culled from CPR and other archives by a patient and talented historian/archivist. The authoras three-decade interest in CPR cruise ship material and a predilection for scouring flea markets and old collections of ephemera have broughtfascinating and exotic material to light.
