Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from An Address Delivered Before the Plymouth County Agricultural Society at Their Annual Exhibition in the Town of Bridgewater, Sept: 25, 1850 Mr. President, and Gentlemen of the Agricultural Society: - I have been called upon to address you as a former inhabitant of this county, and as one deeply interested in its welfare. Without making any pretensions to the rank of a practical farmer, I may claim to be somewhat conversant with the operations of many of the best Agriculturists of New England, and to be intimately acquainted with the nature of the soils of several of the States which it was my duty as the State Geologist to Maine, Rhode Island, and New Hampshire, to examine. By attentive study in the fields with practical farmers, I have endeavored to discover how a chemist could best serve them, while at the same time I have learned how to appreciate their skill, enterprise, and industry, in overcoming those obstacles which are presented by our comparatively poor soils and severe climate. It affords me great pleasure to be able to state that I have found every where in those States which I have examined, the most praiseworthy desire for improvement in the science of Agriculture, and a readiness to engage in any experiments that gave reasonable promise of success. The universal comfort and general prosperity of our New England farmers, indicates that they do not toil in vain, and that they are generally successful in the cultivation of the soil. It is not my intention to offer a mere eulogy upon the art of Agriculture, or to present any apology for the first and most important of...
