

Diamond Head. Wie ein Band aus roter Seide, englische Ausgabe

By Wong, Cecily

Book Condition: New. Publisher/Verlag: HarperCollins US | The rise and fall of a wealthy shipping family in China and Hawaii is observed by four generations of a murdered patriarch's secret-keeping daughters and granddaughters, who endure tragic love and painful sacrifices. | A sweeping debut, crossing from China to Hawaii, that follows three generations of a wealthy dynasty whose rise and decline is riddled with secrets and tragic love - from a young, powerful new voice in fiction. Frank Leong, a prominent shipping industrialist and head of the celebrated Leong family, brings his loved ones from China to Hawaii at the turn of the twentieth century, abandoning his interests at the port of Tsingtao when the Japanese invade. But something ancient follows the Leongs to the islands, haunting them - the parable of the red string of fate. According to Chinese legend, the red string binds one to her intended beloved, but also punishes for mistakes in love, twisting any misstep into a destructive knot that passes down through generations. When Frank Leong is murdered on Oahu, his family is thrown into a perilous downward spiral. Left to rebuild in their patriarch's shadow, the surviving Leongs attempt a new, ordinary life, vowing...
