Random House, New Delhi, India, 2011. Soft cover. Book Condition: New. In Inside WikiLeaks, he will reveal the evolution, finances and inner tensions of the whistleblower organisation, beginning with his first meeting with Assange in December 2007 at the Chaos Computer Club in Berlin. He will also describe the circumstances that led to his withdrawal from WikiLeaks in September 2010, including his disenchantment with the organisation's lack of transparency, its abandonment of political neutrality, and the increasing concentration of power by Julian Assange. He will also address the questions the world is asking: Who is really behind this organisation that has struck fear into the powerful, and prompted the Pentagon to convene a 120-man task force? What does the nerve...
