The women did a tremendous work in every section of the South, and far more than raised their objective of $15,000,000. 15. The entire program of the Gospel of Jesus Christ revealed in the New Testament was brought afresh to all of our churches and people; and the organizations of the denomination came to a higher appreciation and a deeper sense of loyalty to Christ s world program. Our churches in a new sense have determined to base their life and conduct and make out their religious program on and by the commands of Jesus Christ. 16. There was developed throughout the denomination a new doctrinal loyalty. Our people saw afresh the correctness and Scripturalness of their principles and fundamentals. They saw these great doctrines moving a great people forward on sane and simple lines to the accomplishment of a world task; and a new allegiance to the old truth of Jesus Christ so clearly revealed in the New Testament burned itself into the consciousness of Southern Baptists. They are not less brotherly than before, but more loyal to the truth as they see it and more determined to give this truth world-wide application and appropriation. The Campaign gave us a new solidarity in orthodoxy. Three million devoted Christians have afresh sworn their eternal fealty to the doctrines of our faith, resolving as never before to submit to no compromise and to join in no federation which will imperil the whole truth...
