Forgotten Books, United States, 2015. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 229 x 152 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Report on Trade Conditions in Ecuador Sir: In submitting the appended Report on Trade Conditions in Ecuador I wish to call attention to the especially favorable prospects which exist for trade with the United States. Ecuador through its geographical position will be the most directly benefited of the west coast countries.of South America by the Panama Canal, and the results of that waterway in the increased volume of commerce seeking this route are already being anticipated at Guayaquil. Fuller benefits will be secured when this wealthy port with its many natural advantages for shipping and its facilities for handling commodities of import and export is protected from the ravages of tropical epidemic diseases by placing it in line with modern scientific sanitation as has been done so successfully at Habana and Panama. An important means of developing the internal resources of the country is the American Railway extending from the coast across the Andes to the capital. With the means of transportation thus facilitated an increase of commerce should follow, and some indications of this...
