Not illustrated. 1879 Excerpt: .as an angel unawares; but she was so full of missionary zeal that it bubbled over in a spontaneous way that was very stimulating. Among those who shared in the benefit of this overflow, was a young lady who, though an earnest Christian, had never taken special interest in foreign missions. Her mother was heart and soul in Woman s Board work; and the daughter had never doubted that it was a very good enterprise, but it was one that did not specially concern her. After a few conversations with the visitor, however, the matter wore a different aspect. Foreign missions seemed to take a definite, important, necessary place in Christian work; she began to think it was something that could not be thrust aside any more than her duties to her church or her favorite city charities. It began to appear to her not as...
