Larry Weaver, United States, 2014. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 216 x 140 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.What if God, made man perfect? That is, humans were perfect and their bodies functioned correctly as long as they were not disturbed by any outside influences. Then to challenge this scenario, what if He allowed humans to influence their bodies function. They could influence it for good, but if they didn't know what they were doing, they could also influence it for bad. Then with awareness of their bodies and influential powers, they would be as gods able to discern good and evil. These influencing powers were feelings. Good feelings would make healthy bodies with happy experiences and bad feelings would produce sick bodies with unhappy experiences. Then, what if God created a way to bring back bodies that got out of sync, to perfection? Then, when back to perfection, they would not get angry if others did not want the same joyful experiences, or even healing of their bodies in such a strange way. They could just be content. Life is not a what if story; it is a what is reality. Because God created humans perfect i.e. exactly in his image and mirroring himself, He would not want this treasure undervalued. At creation, it was perfectly safe for God to put his image into the world, but as man denigrated it, it would be a risk to not protect his image. To make sure this treasure would not be harmed, He would hide this what is story. Would that be where anyone could find it? Or would He hide it where one had to pay something to have it? So, God hid it inside human babies. They had huge amounts of humility and...
