Brand New Book ***** Print on Demand *****.Excerpt from The St. Andrew s College Review: Christmas, 1918 My Dear Boys: The Editors of the Review have asked me to introduce this Christmas number with a message to the Old Boys overseas, and I gladly comply with their request. This I do the more readily as it affords me an opportunity of offering you, on behalf of the School, our felicitations on being a part of the great force for right, which has overcome the enemy and compelled his surrender. Some of you will soon be coming home, and you will be welcome. It will be the lot of others to remain behind to play a part in reducing order out of chaos. Your task will be one calling for patience, self-control and unselfish conduct. These qualities your careers as soldiers have already shown you to possess. You all have our very sincere congratulations on your contribution to the successful issue of the greatest struggle in the history of the world. We wish you all a speedy return to our midst, and I need hardly assure you that we hope at the old School that none of you will neglect to pay us a visit. The School will be delighted to find accommodation for you, as you are passing through Toronto, and our office is at your disposal for the care and forwarding of any mail, or, for help in any other manner. Remember, you are abroad in great numbers and it is not easy to follow the movements of all with accuracy. I, shall hope, therefore, that when you return you will drop me a line to let me know that you are home...
