

Sanja Ivezkovic: Triangle

By Ruth Noack

Afterall Publishing. Paperback. Book Condition: new. BRAND NEW, Sanja Ivezkovic: Triangle, Ruth Noack, In Sanja Ivezkovic's Triangle (Trokut, 1979), four black-and-white photographs and written text capture an eighteen-minute performance from May 10, 1979. On that date, a motorcade carrying Josip Broz Tito, then president of Yugoslavia, drove through the streets of downtown Zagreb. As the President's limousine passed beneath her apartment, Ivezkovic began simulating masturbation on her balcony. Although she could not be seen from the street, she knew that the surveillance teams on the roofs of neighboring buildings would detect her presence. Within minutes, a policeman appeared at her door ordered her inside. Not only did Ivezkovic's action expose government repression and call attention to the rights of women, it also called attention to the relationship of gender to power, and to the particular experience of political dissidence under communist rule in Eastern Europe. Triangle is considered one of Ivezkovic's key works and yet, despite Ivezkovic's stature as one of the leading artists of the former Yugoslavia, it has received little direct attention. With this book, Ruth Noack offers the first sustained examination of Ivezkovic's widely exhibited, now canonical artwork. After a detailed analysis of the work's formal...
